

THE PUBLIC WORKS BOARD REGIONAL ACADEMIES

What:

A FREE one-day workshop (Academy) sponsored by the Public Works Board and the Department of Commerce which will:

- Inform participants about the changing political, demographic and economic conditions in the region
- Address regional issues facing local governments
- Provide practical information to help local leaders and managers do their jobs

Who is invited:

Leaders and managers from counties, cities, towns, special purpose districts, ports, PUD's and school districts are invited as well as appropriate staff. CML credits will be available to City Municipal Leaders.

Who are the speakers:

Experts in their fields from federal, state and local agencies and organizations will be available to present information as requested.

Dates and Locations:

November 28, 2012 – Vancouver, WA for the SW Region (completed)

February 20, 2013 - Mount Vernon for the NW Region

May 2013 - SE Region

July 2013 – Yakima for South Central Region

September 2013 – NE Region

October 2013 – IACC Conference for North Central Region

Others to be determined.

For More Information, Contact:

Lynn Kohn

Training Coordinator

Public Works Board

360.725.3042

Lynn.kohn@commerce.wa.gov

Or

Jacki Skaught

Public Works Board

360-725-3161

Jacki.Skaught@commerce.wa.gov