

RATE

3%

This rates is good from October 1st 2019 to January 1st 2020

- What does USDA Rural Development do?
 - Delivers a wide variety of loan and grant programs
 - Essential Community Facilities—Only one of 43 funding programs delivered by local staff
- Who does USDA Rural Development assist with Community Facility funding?
 - Communities with population of 20,000 or less – Direct loans and grants
 - Communities with a population of 50,000 or less – guaranteed loans
 - Public Bodies, Indian Tribes, Nonprofit organizations

POLICE CARS

Fire Trucks

Street Sweepers

Drones

First responder radio equipment

Hospitals

LOW INTEREST DIRECT LOANS AND LIMITED GRANT FUNDS AVAILABLE FOR:

New Construction

Remodeling/Renovation

Equipment

Emergency services equipment such as ambulances, specialized lab equipment, fire and rescues equipment, etc.

Facilities financed by Rural Development are:

- designed and constructed in accordance with sound engineering and architectural practices.
- must meet the requirements of Federal, State and local agencies.

Community Centers

Community Garden

Kitchen Equipment

Food Banks

Tool Shed & Tools

Educational Facilities

Heavy equipment

Ferry Dolphins

ATV

Roads, Sidewalks and parking lots

Bridges to everywhere

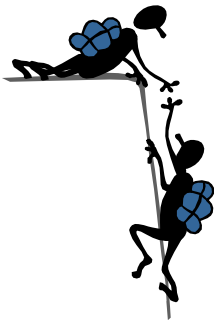

City Hall and Tribal Complex

Telecommunication Specialists

-
- | | |
|--|--|
| • Steve Coyner | • Joe Bradley |
| • W. WA, & W. OR | • E. WA, E. OR, Idaho |
| • (360) 574-9768 | • (208) 288-1435 |
| steve.coyner@wdc.usda.gov | joe.bradley@wdc.usda.gov |

Meeting the Needs of Rural Healthcare Through Telemedicine

- Link clinics and hospitals with radiology specialists
- Provide diagnostic mobile PCs to rural communities
- Provide home health monitoring
- Link mobile health units and ambulances to local clinics and hospitals

Meeting the Needs of Rural Healthcare Through Distance Learning

- Connect schools to share teaching resources
- Share teaching resources between colleges
- Deliver specialized continuing education courses
- Offer technology and job training

Your turn!

Tell us what your community needs are.